

Coexist

By Glenn Currier

Figure out how to fix the drain and the computer glitch, clean the dishes, mow the lawn before the rain go out and buy new britches.

Sometimes I find my mind in a bind

The teacher says let your self go through fall into or upto mystery climb over all the stuff to do open your heart beyond your history.

Sometimes I find my mind in a bind

But why not loosen the rules that say mind and heart don't mix?
Embrace the gray today
open up and let them coexist.

So, don't bind the mind, let it and heart gently combine.
